

Use Case : Create Profile / Registration

Basic Course: In the registration page user choose to add email, phone number and city for registration. After clicking the submit button, the system displays the profile page and the user has a profile.

Alternate Course: User uploads the wrong information like invalid email address and causes the system to display an error message into the page.

